

DUST TRIAL

Human?

1. SHADOWS RUN [6:42]

Touching with a bashful hand
The scolding fate under your fingers

Run, run, just continue
Flee from the night that comes next to you Don't turn round, here they are
Their breath is on your neck
But still feel living yet

Prisoner without chains
Prisoner with no rage
Can you hear all these pulses
The road is opening
It will not be easy
You stare at this leading place

Oooo tirelessly
Each petal is rising from the breathing wind
Oooo inexorably
Every line become much distorting
Oooo Oooo minds switch over memories

Spin, spin, don't pull up
It's like a cry that comes
But that remains surd
To The evil around
And that holds, in its hands
All these running times, then gets back

With no sentiment
With no emotion
You never roll away from this dot
That rhythms the world
Rhythms our shadows
These will catch us tomorrow

Oooo tirelessly
This leaves layer renewed forever
Oooo inexorably
Disturbing by this ever alter
Oooo Oooo memories fall missing

2. BULLET [5:54]

Hypnotized by tv screen
Feel happy with nasty frames
People's decay is your oxygen

With no brain
All that matter is the way you come
Ejaculated idiocy
Spread out on the pixels

Come ! Come ! Come !
Let the pleasure come inside
Come ! Come ! Come !
As the screen is full of pain
Satisfy your emptiness

Like a dog
with slobber dripping lips
Sniffing in the taste of blood
Seeking out a way to kill

Without senses
All that matter is the way you harm
Dedicated scars
Right far in the heart

Bite ! Bite ! Bite !
Get your fangs into the flesh
Claw ! Claw ! Claw !

Just to satisfy your thirst
Drunk of blood

I'm searching for somebody
Is there anybody ?

Can nobody else share feelings
With no fear

True emotions without computing
Simply as the real human nature
Feel our soul

And give our heart

I'll be the bullet that'll smash down your maw
I'll expose your tv banging your head on it
We are living in a world of fucking people
We are loosing up the world with fucking nations

Bullet

Headshot

Hitman

Bullet

Headshot

Cancellation

Eradication... Headshot !

3. CHRYSALIS [6:08]

*I was just a worm laying six feet under ground
Waiting for some powerful king my home to pound*

Taking me my precious pipes

Blasting all my murky vibes

• Dashing up my empty dreams

Finding out my secret sins

I was living in a kind of insuppressible fright frightened by all the outside sounds and lights

Burning all my despaired hopes

Whispers hanging on a rope

Muting all my words to come

But I don't want to end alone

Chrysalis

I'm so waiting for that time to come

Craving of, hanging on

Chrysalis

Oooh beautiful butterfly

Freely pacing in this so blue sky

*I was just a worm dragging my distress on the mud
I was dreaming for some comfort far under my hut*

Counting sec from where i die

Amazed by all their speech of lies

Working all the days and nights

Plugging cracks they've done with pride

*I was just a worm happy on the rainy days
Wrapped in muck and felt glad when i had nothing to pay
Trying to find out my way
Though yet lost without a ray
Hold to not succumbing to fear
Suicide in the offing*

*Chrysalis
I'm so waiting for that time to come
Craving of, hanging on
Chrysalis
Oooh beautiful butterfly
Freely pacing on this so blue sky*

*I've torn appart this rotten flesh
Escape from their sturdy mesh
Now free
i'm able to advise*

*Chrysalis
Chrysalis
Chrysalis*

Now a butterfly with keen shining tones

4. HELL ME [6:16]

And what if i show feelings...
May i'll be placed on the edge?
May i'll be considered as a plagued?
Would you judge me hastily?

And if i tear my chest apart
Will you see how i ail
Will you see how i hate
So wilt thou stay in my heart?

And if you kill me with care
Shoving your frights in my mind
How much do you think i can stand
Bleeding emotions from my stare?

And if i show my dark sides
Would you leave me on my own?
What if i can't contain them no more?
Will you help me?
Will you hail me?
Will you hell me?

*And if i follow my desires,
May i suicide all of you folks ?
And if i turn off the light
Could you ever see who i am ?*

*And if i guard you with care
Doffing your fears from your heart
Do you think you will love me
Do you think you will save me ?*

*And if i show my dark sides
Would you leave me on my own
What if i can't contain them no more ?*

Will you help me ?

Will you hail me ?

Will you hell me ?

help ! help !

hell ! hell !

hail ! hail !

help ! hell !

5. THE ENDLESS CYCLE [9:08]

Now that you're here

Learn

Charge

Brave the life that open up

Don't be bothered ... grow

Just be yourself

Don't suppose all will be obvious

Don't suppose all will be yours

You must deserve

Gain the faith

Gain respect

Be true to yourself

They will try their road to impose you

They will try to set the doubt in you

Your deeds lead up to aftereffect

Now all is imposed to you

You've no choice than

Run

Run

Run, run, run, run

Now you really can't go back

You have no more time for that

You must faced up your present

You must struggle to stay vibrant

So don't let them to track down you

With their choices and their rules

*You suffer but you try to stay in control
Your dignity is so hard to hold
You peter out but you still fight
To keep the light far in your heart
But slowly settle down the night
But your mirror's reflection seems not to be the real one
Your hands shake
Your voice fade away
And your strenght seems to leave away
Yeah, you fight too hard
But you're the one who lost the part
Then spectral colors appear on this sudden play
Flashing in some drab brightness
Feeling as weak as thousands torn plies
With never ending uprising
That makes the haze surround
And finally darkness is all around
Then been blind with dazzling light
I feel the might
Colorful senses on me
Feel like i could be the king
Forever and ever and ever
I'm hungry for all i see
So get up and start moving walk, walk, run forever*

6. HEADING EAST [6:06]

A new world's rift's came through our windows
Even if the earth is round it turned no more on our heads
We knew this will bring sacrifices and widows
But we were proud and our will was straight

Our eyes full of will and courage in our arms
No more we suffer, we will fight for the faith
Free to believe
Free to love
Free to live our real lives

You galley's fellows, all martyrs have been gone
Only our brothers left, waving out the flag of the truth
On their ruined burned rooftops
Change is heading east

The color of our flag was these of our comrade's blood
My face's held the marks of famine and cold
I will never forget my faith companions

*My heart is slashed by dismal memories
My heavy soul is soiled by some vanished ghosts*

*You galley's fellows, all martyrs have been gone
Only our brothers left, waving out the flag of the truth
On their ruined burned rooftops
Change is heading east*

*Heading
Victory
Stand up
Fight on
'Till the last*

6. DROPLETS [5:03]

So frail and so weak

And even so

• So lone and disarmed

And even so

And even so...

I could flare in a million parts

With strength in my heart

I could erode any mountain

And make it tumbling down

I could change all of our landscape

Yeah together we could escape...

We could clear all these rubbish

And finally enjoy these beach

Enjoy your lives

Alone i'm just as a tear

United they could fear

7. EMBRACE OF THE ABYSS [6:57]

The grey of everyday
And thousands falling tears
On this wonky pavement
And we lose our footsteps
We are losing our poise
Our souls are drowning in this turmoil
Our beliefs elude
Under the weight of our sins
And we sink into oblivion
We fall alone in total indifference
With faking our own emotions
With bargaining our valours
In this great market of lies
We sale our dreams to the highest bidder, yeah
We buy some smiles and buy some love... love, love
We trade our heart with some of dust... love, love
What are we waiting to run away my love?
Embrace me and let's dive into the nil

Our bearings fade
Our ideals crack
Our dreams wear
Our colours dull
Meet me and let's paint a new canvas
From the tip of our hearts, let's draw this new world
Rekindle the colours of our souls.
Should we expect the worst my love?
Let your gaze plunges in mine
Let's ignore this new outlet,
And together, let's dip in the abyss
We fall, we fall, we fall, we fall, we fall
We fall, invaded by this vortex inebriation
Don't fear
No more
Unhand
Embrace the abyss

8. LES PRINCESSES DE L'AUBE [7:30]

A travers les contrées de nos matins étranges
Naissent ces aventures qui demeurent un mystère
Echangeons nos destins sous nos vies qui dérangent
Et partons reconnaître nos ombres dans la lumière
Chevauchant l'éternel qui glisse sous nos doigts
Et cherchant dans le ciel un signe une voix
Se laisser malmener par des pulsions bizarres
Qui feront de notre âme un tout sans le savoir

Les princesses de l'aube nous appellent
Elles vivent dans l'ombre de nos regards
Les princesses de l'aube éternelles
Qui guident nos cœurs vers ce quai de gare

Bien au-delà des routes qui défilent sous nos pas
Bien au-delà des mots que l'on se dit tout bas
Naissent les apparences de nos reflets vides
De toutes nos sentences seule la vérité
Va laisser dans nos yeux autant de souvenirs
Qui porteront nos chairs dans un dernier soupir
Et deviner nos doutes qui n'en seront plus rien
Parfumer de déroute nos vies sans lendemain

*Les princesses de l'aube nous appellent
Elles vivent dans l'ombre de nos regards
Les princesses de l'aube éternelles
Qui guident nos coeurs vers ce quai de gare*

*Tu as cherché ta route au loin sans retenue
Et devant tous tes doutes rien ne l'est apparu
Alors tu as tourné dans un dernier espoir
Revenir sur la route au creux de leurs regards
Les princesses de l'aube te guideront sans leurres
Elles devinent tes doutes elles devinent tes peurs
Laisse toi emporter sous leurs manteaux velours
Et compose ta vie en simple troubadour*

*Les princesses de l'aube nous appellent
Elles vivent dans l'ombre de nos regards
Les princesses de l'aube éternelles
Qui guident nos coeurs vers ce quai de gare*
